RECIPE for LOVE

Michael Schulson The celebrity chef found the purrfect companion in his sweet rescue cat, Santo!

He really knows how to calm everybody down," Michael Schulson gushes to Closer of his family's soothing rescue cat, Santo. "He just relaxes us!" The celebrity chef and founder of the Schulson Collective restaurant group brought home his feline friend after his wife, Nina, spotted Santo at a shelter seven years ago. "He came right up to her," Michael recalls. "She fell in love and said, 'I'll take him!'" Since then, Santo has won the hearts of the rest of his forever family — especially Michael's sons, Davin and Jordan. "He lays on the bed while they read," the chef notes. "And they love to brush him!"
