Celebrity Chefs and Food Network Stars Share Their Sweetest Throwback Photos with Mom for Mother's Day

We asked these culinary gurus to share special dedications to the women who have supported them in and out of the kitchen

Michael Schulson & Pearl Schulson

"This photo with my mother was taken when I got engaged to my amazing wife Nina and I shared the news with my parents. It's so meaningful because it shows the joy my mother has for my amazing wife and how happy she was for me. It's one thing to marry your best friend but it's another thing when your mom is so happy about the person you are marrying. My mother is truly a special person and I'm so grateful for all that she has done."
